Proposing an Amendment to Article III, ~~Section 51~~ of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new ~~sub~~section, Section 51-d, so as to provide for the payment of assistance by the State of Texas to the surviving spouse and minor children of law enforcement officers who suffer violent death in the course of the performance of their duties as a law enforcement officer, providing for the necessary election, form of ballot, proclamation, and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 51 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding thereto a new subsection, to be known as Section 51-d of Article III, which shall read as follows:

"Section 51-d. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide for the payment of assistance by the State of Texas to the surviving spouse and minor children of law enforcement officers who suffer violent death in the course of the performance of their duties as law enforcement officers."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the payment of assistance by the State of Texas to the surviving spouse and minor children of law enforcement officers who suffer violent death in the course of the performance of their duties as a law enforcement officer."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the payment of assistance by the State of Texas to the surviving spouse and minor children of law enforcement officers who suffer violent death in the course of the performance of their duties as a law enforcement officer."

Each voter shall mark out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment. In counties using voting machines, the above provision for voting, for and against this Constitutional Amendment, shall be placed on said machine in such a manner that each voter may vote on such machines for or against the Constitutional Amendment.

Section 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary Proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time required by the Constitution and laws of this State.
